GRANT JEFFREY'S BOOK SHADOW GOVERNMENT

Release Date: October 6, 2009

Shadow Government is an exploration of the growing dangers to our privacy and freedom from the relentless development of surveillance technologies and the willingness of governments to exercise that power against their own citizens as well as foreign nationals. This book explores how these globalist trends and phenomenal technological surveillance capabilities are setting the stage for the rise of the Antichrist—the global dictator prophesied by the Bible. The Antichrist will arise in our generation.

We are part of the first generation in human history that can understand how the political and technological developments examined in this book will make it possible for a future dictator to achieve the totalitarian control of the world's population. Technology will be a primary tool used to implement the system of the Mark of the Beast, making possible complete police control.

This book is the result of more than forty years of research involving the study of thousands of books and articles, augmented by interviews with political leaders and experts in intelligence, military strategy, and surveillance technologies, as well as the intensive study of the Scriptures. As this book will demonstrate, the trends we see unfolding in our day represent the greatest threats ever presented to the freedom and privacy of humanity. However, our faith and hope for the future of humanity are grounded upon an unshakeable conviction in the promise of our Lord Jesus Christ: “And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh” (Luke 21:28).

My loving parents have inspired in me a profound love for Jesus Christ and the prophetic truths that are revealed in the Word of God. As a teenager I fondly remember my father taking me to prophecy conferences that led us to often discuss world events in light of Bible prophecy.

I dedicate this book to my wife, Kaye. She is a continuing inspiration to my work and a faithful partner in our ministry. I trust that the information revealed in the following pages will encourage you to personally study the Bible’s prophecies about the last days and the triumphant return of Jesus Christ to set up His kingdom on earth.
